

Freezing Research Seminar: 9 February, 2022

Sustainable Business Transformation

Call for Papers

Abstract submission for HAMK Freezing week 2022 research seminar is now open. For online submission, please click here. The participants will be able to present their papers in HAMK University Centre Hämeenlinna or online/virtually.

Please note that the deadline for abstract submission is Friday December 10, 2021. The decision regarding the acceptance/rejection of each abstract will be communicated with the corresponding author within two weeks of submission.

Papers focusing on sustainable business management, design and IT are welcome in the seminar. We are especially interested in sustainability-related case studies in different countries.

Your abstract should be between 150 and 400 words. All abstracts should be submitted in Microsoft Word format and in English (including the title, author's names, affiliation, and contact information of the authors). Abstracts should include Objectives, Data and Methods, Results and Conclusions. Up to four key words should be used. After your abstract has been accepted, you may work it into an article manuscript.

Please send your manuscripts by 31 January 2022.
