Museums in Saxony

Learn about history and other interesting topics!

We highly recommend these museums

In Dresden:

This museum does not offer much on „hygiene“, but has regular themed exhibitions about different topics, attracting thousands of visitors per year via their interesting multimedia approach.

In this museum, you will find out everything about the history of transportation, from horse carriages through cars to planes and rockets. It is very interactive and you are sure to learn a lot during your visit :)

We highly recommend these museums

In Leipzig:

Since 2003, this location has put on display the most interesting 360° panoramas in the world. Currently they are showing an amazing view of a garden from the perspective of an ant. Don't miss this unique experience!

The Völkerschlachtdenkmal is a 91 m high monument from the 20th century, in memory of the enormous battle fought here in the 19th century between Napoleon and a coalition against him. Don't miss the amazing view from the platform on the top of the monument!

We highly recommend these museums

In Chemnitz:
